Dear Gordo: This is the town of Chunahill. You can't see much in the picture but that is exactly what you see in person. The big white building is the Harbor Board Staff house where the stewdones and their families stay. The road up the right leads out to the army base which is just visible on the horizon. There are no trees up here but plenty of swamp - muskeg. Weather has been pretty fair so far.
Last Sunday was 87°. Hottest ever they say. Regards to all Harry.
